

Guide for Families: Choosing a School

Touring a school is a great way to see if it's the right fit for your child.

Here are some things to look for in a school:

Emotional + Physical Safety

- ✓ A calm but joyful atmosphere where children can focus on learning.
- ✓ A clean and well-maintained building.
- ✓ Students who are at ease being themselves.
- ✓ Students and families feel safe and respected by faculty, staff and fellow students and families.

Culture + Engagement

- ✓ Teachers, principals and staff who are welcoming.
- ✓ Field trips, community partnerships and activities that enrich classroom learning.
- ✓ Student art, classroom projects and positive messages displayed in classrooms and halls.
- ✓ School values are reflected in the ways students and teachers interact.
- ✓ Classroom management strategies that help students develop skills to succeed.

Academics + Curriculum

- ✓ Curriculum that goes beyond test preparation to support whole-child development.
- ✓ Students engaged in active learning in a variety of environments.
- ✓ High-quality student work on display.
- ✓ Individualized supports, programs and resources to help all students learn at their best.

See for yourself!

At the Intergenerational Schools, students learn at their own pace and thrive academically in multi-age classes and through active community partnerships.
